

JOHN CARLO L. BETOY

ABOUT ME

A fresh graduate who is willing to learn and immerse himself in the fieldwork of his studies. I am an optimistic person and passionate about what I am doing who guarantees to render the utmost service with quality outputs. Moreover, I am also easy to deal with, willing to listen to any comments and suggestions, and can establish a healthy working environment.

To obtain a career for a professional organization where my expertise in journalism writing and work experiences in extension works can be utilized and get opportunities to prove my abilities by accepting challenges, fulfilling organizational goal and developing myself through learning and commitment.
