MEMORANDUM NO. 107
Series of 1995

T O: All ViSCA Students, Faculty and Staff

SUBJECT: Participation in the Celebration of Crime Prevention Month

In accordance with the nationwide celebration of Crime-Prevention Month, the Visayas State College of Agriculture is joining other schools in Baybay in a week-long series of activities (September 11-15, 1995) to promote the prevention of crime and drug abuse.

As a result of a consultative meeting organized by Mayor Carmen Cari of Baybay and the DILG-PNP, it was agreed that the participation of ViSCA will be as follows:

1. Holding a symposium on "Crime Prevention and Drug Abuse" on Monday, September 11, 1995, from 1:00 - 5:00 P.M. at the ViSCA Gymnasium to be attended by all ViSCA college and high school students and faculty, and interested staff.
Instructor holding class on Sept-11 shall check the attendance of this
2. Participation in the Culminating Parade and Program at Baybay students at the Gym Gym on Friday, September 15, 1995 from 7:00 - 11:00 A.M. for ROTC cadets and ViSCA delegation.

In this connection, all classes will be suspended on Monday, September 11 from 1:00 - 5:00 P.M. to enable students (college and high school) and faculty members to attend the symposium on "Crime Prevention" and Drug Abuse."

Furthermore, all ViSCA ROTC cadets and interested students, faculty and staff are enjoined to join the Crime Prevention Parade & Culmination Program on Friday, September 15, 1995 at Baybay Gym, starting at 7:00 o'clock A.M. ViSCA vehicles shall be available on first-come-first-serve basis at 6:00 A.M. to bring ViSCA participants to Baybay.

Please be guided accordingly.
