RE: Excusal of Students from their class

Dear Dr. Yepes,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits.

The Faculty of Nursing celebrates the spirit of unity and excellence of the nursing students and faculty as we have our Nursing Days 2025 on February 26 – March 1, 2025. Nursing Days hold significant importance in our academic calendar, serving as a platform to strengthen the bonds, foster camaraderie and, honor the achievements and contributions of our nursing students to the university community.

In light of this, the Faculty of Nursing would like to request the excusal of our students from their classes to participate in the upcoming Nursing Days events. The Faculty of Nursing Supreme Student Council (FON-SSC) has been diligently preparing for these events for months to ensure their success. The events scheduled for Nursing Days include:

We humbly seek your support in enabling our students to participate in these significant events by kindly excusing them from their general education and major courses. Specifically, we request that the listed nursing students be excused from February 26, 2025 (Wednesday) to March 1, 2025 (Saturday) to allow them to fully engage in the Nursing Days activities. Your gracious accommodation of their participation in these meaningful events would be deeply appreciated.

Attached to this letter is the list of students who have general education and major courses on the specified days.

We assure you that our students are committed to making up for any missed lectures and will coordinate with their respective instructors to fulfill all academic requirements. Your understanding and support in facilitating their participation are greatly appreciated.

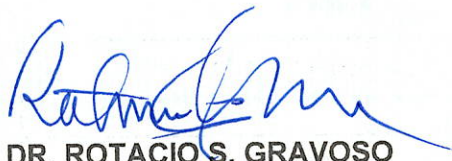

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter. We look forward to your positive response and to the continued success of Nursing Days at Visayas State University.

With all respect,

MICOLE MATTHEW D. PINO
 FN-SSC President
